Joint Editor's Message

Dear Esteemed Professional Colleagues,

It is our privilege to present before you the March'24 issue of the Nagpur Branch of WIRC of ICAI. As we step into a New Financial Year, the Nagpur branch conducted various seminars and discussions to help the members to update their Professional Skills. These included the Annual feature of the Branch 'Making March Meaningful', Seminars on Bank Branch Audit, MSME Sector etc. to name a few.

While focusing on Professional Skills the Branch also celebrates 'Other than Professional Skills' and fellowship amongst its members. One such unique event of the Nagpur Branch is Trek RRC which took place in February 2024 at Kuari Pass. The write-up and poem in the issue aptly describe this experience. The article on Chanakya Sootra and its implementation on Professional life, expresses how the ancient principles still hold good.

We are thankful to the contributors to the magazine. The Newsletter is an integral part of the communication between the Branch and its members. We would request the members to participate in the journey of this Newsletter by providing Articles, Write-ups, Achievements, suggestions and feedback.

Happy Reading!
CA Shweta Telang
Joint Editor

Professional Enrichment

Kurai Pass Trek Experience

CA. Abhiram Deshmukh

From the hustle bustle of routine to the tranquil of Himalayan snow capped glowing peaks to the trails that you always wanted to tread but could not, from the fear of nature's extremes to the confidence of you can, from the inhibitions that come with status, age and what not to the let go that makes things happen, from the granted luxuries to the joy of small things, from the pains of understanding people to the ease self contemplation, from everything that gives nothing to nothing that gives everything.

This transformational experience that gets etched forever by the sight of Snow White landscape with patches of brown, black, grey and green, abandoned huts in between, snow shower from the trees and the feel of cold breeze, Sound of the solitary bird waking up to the warming sun, makes the entire experience enriched with fun, cracking of ice flakes under your feet with numbing figures that cannot hold and warming hot drinks to beat the cold, enjoying the sunrise and sunset, the best sight I can bet.

If these experiences entice, Kuari pass trek this time of the year (January to March) is a go to destination. The trek in Chamoli district, Uttarakhand starts from base camp Karchi, and further camping at Akrotgetta, Kullahara to reach Kuari Pass and then on the descent camping at Chenni, Jhandi top and concluding at Karchi or Dhak base camp. The altitude is 12,510 ft with altitude gain/ loss of about 2,000 feet per day on the climb and descent.

The trek is not a difficult one but sub zero temperatures coupled with snow fall and rain can make the task quite daunting. We were fortunate as always as the Mother Nature spared us of the difficulties and we could enjoy the journey with amazing views of mount Dronagori throughout the day and the bright shower of calming moonlight at the night. You are fed with amusing stories from mythology about why the locals hold grudge against lord Hanuman on a mission to collect Sanjeevani from this area to SriLanka before sunrise where lord Ram was waiting for him to use the juice of Sanjiveeni leaves to revive unconscious Laxman. Hanuman engrossed with the mission and time running against him took a portion of Dronagiri mountain permanently away leaving the locals robbed of the precious medicinal plants on the mountain. These stories entertain as well as remind of the days when kids and grandmothers both loved to hear and tell such stories.

On the trek, day time temperatures are bearable as we trek from one camp to another under the shining sun. Sub zero night temperature is quite extreme. Life skills of surviving in such extreme climatic conditions include mental physical fitness and readiness, layering techniques, proper hydration, team work. If you are ready a transformational experience awaits you.

Way back in 300 BC Chanakya very scientifically, analytically and logically showing the way to society to observe. These verses are the starting verses of Chanakya Sootra. What ever he has discussed is equally applicable today. His conclusion is a complete code in itself for society. Even after lapse of so many years impact of these verses has not been diluted.

Every professional body must think about the wellbeing of its members. Until legitimate ways of earning bread and butter of professional members is not secured - it is unjust to expect following of moral & ethics from them.

It is the responsibility of every torch bearer and policy formulators

सुखस्य मूलं धर्मः- चाणक्य सूत्र सेधर्म के अनुसार आचरण करने पर सुख की प्राप्ति होती है। What a person is supposed to do is his dharma. As a professional what we are supposed to do is our dharma, as a citizen of a nation what we are supposed to do is our dharma and as a family member what we are supposed to do is also our dharma. If we want to seek happiness "we should do what we are supposed to do."

धर्मस्य मूलं अर्थ-चाणक्य सूत्र से धर्म के अनुसार आचरण करने के लिए हमें धन की आवश्यकता होती है। If don't have money we may not have power to distinguish between right and wrong. This is why it is said that to remain poor as Grihasth is a sin.

For protection of wealth citizen of a nation needs strong government. For good governance, ruler must have control over his senses (indriya).

To have control over senses humbleness is required. Humbleness is achieved through service of virtuous people (elders and other superiors).

Code of conduct and professional ethics are the source of happiness of a chartered accountant. But no chartered accountant can follow ethics if he is not having sufficient means to survive.
